

End-Point Assessment

As one of the longest established EPAOs, we have been selected by over 2,000 employers to deliver end-point assessment for their apprentices.

We partner with training providers across a range of sectors including Financial Services, NHS, Public Sector, MOD, Retail and Professional Services.

“ We often get approached by other End-Point Assessment Organisations, and we always say the same thing; we work with DSW and we love working with them!

DSW has by far the best customer service of any awarding body that we work with. It’s so good, nothing else can compete!”
